No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true
Arise and defend it[illegible] ye sons of the brave
Whose blood bought the banner [illegible] valor must save

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 15 1864

For President,
ABRAHAM LINCOLN.
Of Illinois.
For Vice-President,
ANDREW JOHNSON,
Of Tennessee
For Presidential Electors
GEORGE L WOODS of Wasco County,
[illegible] GEORGE of [illegible] County
J F GAZLEY of Douglas County

CANYON CITY ROAD GUARD.—We are informed that a requisition having been made by Gen Alvord, on Gov Gibbs, for the purpose, he authorizes Judge Olney, late sheriff of Wasco county, to raise a company of forty mounted men, to be enlisted for four months' service, in protecting the road from Dalles to Canyon City against the encroachments of Snake Indians The arms, clothing, rations, and wages will be the same as the Oregon Cavalry companies, only that the term of enlistment will expire in four months, and perhaps even sooner A rare chance is thus offered any persons who have the leisure to spend a summer in a pleasant section of the country, and enjoy themselves at the Government expense Any who desire to go, but are without horses, can be supplied from county money which will be raised among the merchants and others interested in keeping our inland mining avenues open and safe By reporting promptly to Judge Olney, at the Dalles, they can secure a place any time within the next ten days We understand that a volunteer bounty, raised among the citizens, will be paid in gold to the members of the corps

RATIFICATIONS.—The whole interior of Oregon is [illegible] over the nominations made by the Baltimore Convention At Eugene City the Union men fired 100 guns At Eola, a piece of Polk county artillery—[illegible], an an[illegible] was put in requisition, during the demonstration one G T Waller, brother of the late Democratic candidate for State Senator, vented [illegible] democratic sentiments by enthusiastically cheering for Jeff Davis

GRAND JUBILEE AT ALBANY.—The citizens of Albany to the number of three hundred, one third ladies, participated in a general Union jubilee on the evening of last Wednesday A splendid torch-light procession, headed by the Albany Brass Band, paraded the streets, after which an oyster collation was partaken of, when patriotic songs by the young ladies, and a sound Union speech by Judge Thornton, concluded the entertainment

INDIAN NOTABLES DEAD.—John, the War Chief of the Klamath and Rogue river Indians, known and dreaded for several years on account of his desperate hate of the whites died [illegible] old age at Fort Yamhill on the 6th inst within an hour or two of Stock Whitly, the [illegible] chief of the Nez Perces Thus in one day the two most notable Indian warrior-chiefs of the Northern Pacific Coast, have gone to the great hunting grounds.

THE FOURTH.—A meeting was held by citizens [illegible] Monday evening last, to adopt measures for a proper observance of the Fourth of July It is high time that the citizens of Portland were moving with a view to such a celebration as shall be creditable to the wealth and loyalty of the head of ocean navigation We hope our leading citizens will take the matter in hand

NEW FLAG-STAFF RAISED.—The patriotic citizens of Albany raised a splendid Liberty pole, one hundred and thirty feet long, in the public square of their town on Thursday last Just as it had attained a perpendicular, the news of the nomination of Lincoln and Johnson arrived, and the flag went up amid numerous cheers, loud and oft repeated. Albany is loyal

The Montreal Witness asks for a scientific explanation of the fact that this has been the mildest winter ever known in Lower Canada, and the severest, perhaps, ever known in the Western States, and even as far south as St Louis and Washington.

THE SNAKE INDIAN EXPEDITION.—We are informed that the number of troops engaged in this expedition with Captain Curry's command will be but 200 The Indians from the Reservations constitute the balance of the force

ERRATA.—In the returns from Cowlitz and Wahkiakum counties, W T., the wrong figures were used in two instances The statement should read For Representative—W W Hays 69, Thos R [illegible] 45 Hays' maj 24

CREDITABLE TO SCOTTSBURG.—Scottsburg precinct in Douglas county cast 24 votes, all told, and gave $210 to the Sanitary fund, This is just $8 75 to each voter, and is the most liberal contribution yet reported

CELEBRATION OF THE FOURTH.—The Union citizens of Eugene City are making arrangements for an enthusiastic celebration of our National Birthday, in a manner worthy of the occasion and creditable to the country.

A military expedition to the Owyhee country, under command of Col Drew, started from Jacksonville on the 28th of May Some prospecting parties, the Intelligencer says, will accompany the expedition

OAKLAND, June 8, 1864

EDITOR OREGONIAN

I send you three more names to the Campaign OREGONIAN This, I believe, makes me forty seven subscribers, besides one for the Daily When I first began to procure names for your paper I had but little hope of getting sufficient names to get the paper for one dollar each but by using a little energy you see the result I do not say this to boast of the number that I have procured, but with the hope that it may induce others to go and do likewise.

The election in these parts, as you are informed long ere this by telegraph passed off in a very quiet manner with an overwhelming majority for the Union candidates. I think that the Callapooia precinct will stand as the banner precinct for this county There were about 40 votes cast, and of these Henderson got 31 and Kelly 9, and it was the same through the whole ticket

Our crops of oats and grass promise to be quite short on account of so much dry and hot weather In some places the grasshoppers are quite numerous. Yours truly, OAKLAND

Idaho City contains two assay offices, nine bakeries, four breweries, nine butcher shops seven barber shops, two brokers six blacksmith shops, three billiard saloons one bowling alley, one confectionery, one cider factory nine carpenter shops, two churches, two daguerrean galleries, five drug stores, five dress makers, five dentists, one tin[illegible] shop, one furniture store, eight gambling saloons, fourteen hotels, forty two houses of ill fame, five jewellers, twenty seven lawyers, seven livery stables, one masonic lodge, one odd fellows lodge one printing office, two paint shops ten restaurants, forty two drinking saloons, one soda factory seven cigar stands five shoemaker shops four tailor shops, two tin shops, two gunsmith shops one pottery, three steam saw mills three water saw mills one sausage factory, two theatres eleven laundries seventy two merchantile houses, one fire company, three express offices, seven doctors one syrup factory, two bath houses, one horse market, two auction rooms and one hurdy gurdy saloon

The above information was furnished to by Mr. Veck just returned from the Boise basin, and is believed to be strictly correct in every particular

TRUE.—The N Y World for once preaches true doctrine when it says

"Deservedly great as is the confidence of the country in General Grant, it would be criminally incautious to inculcate upon the public mind the idea that the success of our cause is staked upon the result of this campaign It is important that the public feeling should be trained to such invincible determination that the result of no battle can be a triumph for the peace party"

The World seems to have deserted the Copperhead Peace faction

ATMOSPHERIC PHENOMENA.—We take the following telegrams from morning papers of San Francisco

CARSON CITY, May 30—7 P M—There has been a succession of thunderstorms between here and Salt Lake for the last three weeks two or three occurring every day It has therefore, been impossible to work the wires half the time The line otherwise in good order

AGENT TELEGRAPH COMPANY

LOS ANGELES, May 30—6 P M—The last two days atmospheric electricity charged the wires to such an extent that we could not work The rain at Fort Tejon on Saturday was very heavy, covering the plains with water for miles in extent

AGENT

PRESENT FROM GEN GRANT.—Gen Grant has presented to his Chief of Staff, General Rawlings, a handsome silk scarf, bearing this inscription

This sash, worn by me, through all my battles and campaigns, from and including the surrender of Vicksburg, July 4 1863, is presented to Brigadier General John A Rawlins, my chief of staff in evidence of my appreciation as an officer and friend
U S GRANT,
Lieutenant General U S Army

LADY VOLUNTEERS.—The ladies in the different parts of the country are "beating up" volunteers among their own sex, the understanding being that they are to take the place of clerks and others who volunteer for the "hundred days service" The ladies agree to accept $15 per month and rations, (soldiers' pay,) the salaries of those who volunteer being continued as usual, less the amount paid to the lady volunteers and the situations of the former being assured to them on their return —St Louis

The Santiam Gold and Silver Mining Company have just received a number of very rich specimens of gold bearing quartz, taken from their claims on the South Fork of the Santiam river Steps will be taken immediately to procure machinery and work the claims on an extensive scale

It is pleasantly stated that a Massachusetts corporal, who was before General Casey's Board seeking a commission as lieutenant, was asked "who was the hero of Fair Oaks?" General Casey" emphatically responded the aspirant for shoulder straps When ordered to report to corporal found that he had been appointed to a first-class captaincy

Why is a cannon just fired, like a whipped school boy? Because it is warm at the breech

THE SOUTHERN INDEPENDENCE ASSOCIATION.—The material aid which the Southern rebellion has derived from the British aristocracy is far greater than is generally supposed to be. The rebel leaders have received credit for creating military resources which they have really drawn from beyond the Atlantic. To prove the truth of this proposition, a New York journal produces some startling evidence in the shape of a list of members of the "Southern Independence Association," a body avowedly organized to promote the destruction of the United States The list comprises over eight hundred names—among them being the names of members of the House of Lords and the House of Commons baronets magistrates, clergymen, lawyers merchants and others distinguished for wealth and social influence This Association appeals through the British press for donations and the vast amount of money which the members represent justifies the inference that they have a large fund at their disposal Nassau is the entrepot of the traffic which this body and the blockade running companies maintain with the rebels From that port Jeff Davis & Co obtain the arms, clothing and munitions of war required to carry on the contest—the blockade runners getting cotton in return and the "Southern Independence Association" having the malignant satisfaction of aiding to destroy the republic which they both fear and hate There is no mystery about the maintenance of the rebel armies They have been in a great measure armed and equipped by British gold, and as the food required is impressed the soldiers are fed though the people may starve. Yet there are Englishmen who affect to be surprised at the bitterness of American feeling against their country, and who wonder why such an organization as the "Fenian Brotherhood" is tolerated or countenanced in the United States Now, suppose that instead of an organization composed almost exclusively of Irishmen there should be formed in this country an "Irish Independence Association," comprising Members of Congress eminent lawyers, clergymen and merchant princes with plenty of money at their command, and a determination to purchase and store at some depot convenient for shipment to Cork or Galway the arms and munitions of war required to equip an Irish army This would be merely an offset to the "Southern Independence Association," and, according to British precedent, a perfectly justifiable proceeding But what a howl of indignation would go up from injured England if such an attempt were made to promote and maintain a rebellion in the Green Isle! The vocabulary of vituperation would be exhausted by the Tory press We should be charged with a reckless disregard of all treaty obligations and with being an outlaw among the nations, and our Government would be called upon to put down this combination for the dismemberment of the United Kingdom or take up the gauntlet for an open war. We do not propose to retaliate in this manner at this time, for that would be to play into the hands of the "Southern Independence Association," which favors the recognition of Jeff Davis even at the expense of a war between England and the United States We can see that the surest, most effective way to defeat this association of aristocrats, as well as to rescue Mexico, is to concentrate the National forces for the suppression of the Southern rebellion But it is desirable that our people shall comprehend the agencies by which that rebellion has been promoted and maintained—that the tripartite alliance between the negro drivers, the Copperheads and the British aristocracy shall be thoroughly understood—so that the difficulties of the National Government shall not be underrated the rebel leaders credited with ability they have not displayed, or the perfidious policy of the ruling classes in England forgotten or condoned when the republic shall have triumphed. It is unjust to our Government to regard the rebellion as an isolated belligerent, and take no account of its alliance with a subtle and powerful party in the North and a wealthy and unscrupulous power beyond the Atlantic

Whenever news shall reach England that the rebel armies have been routed and that their strongholds are in a desperate condition, we may expect the "Southern Independence Association," which works through the press and through Parliament, to have recourse to any and every available means to secure British intervention A writer in Blackwood's Magazine, speaking for that party, says they will acquiesce in the policy of 'neutrality' as long as the rebels show their ability to maintain themselves, but will demand intervention as soon as it becomes clear that the Union arms are approaching a triumph They will endeavor to drive Earl Russell out of the Cabinet, or overthrow the Palmerston Ministry as a whole Pretexts for a belligerent demonstration will be raked up from the ashes of old controversies Tory orators will thunder about the honor(!) of England and the Tory press will teem with inflammatory articles The Liberal leaders, supported by the people who have just startled the aristocracy by their splendid ovations to Garibaldi, the champion of democracy, may succeed in defeating this programme or a general war in Europe may frighten the anti-American party into silent acquiescence, but that the demonstration will be formidable and the situation critical, cannot be disguised If the "Southern Independence Association" fails to effect its purpose then, it will fall under the ban of public opinion and its infamous career will serve to hasten that conflict between aristocracy and democracy in England which is as inevitable, at some period, as was the struggle between the negro barons and the mudsills in the United States —Sacramento Union

NEW TRAIL.—The people of Colville valley are having a new trail opened from there direct to the Kootenai country The trail goes over the hills from Colville and crosses the Pend d'Oreille river near the mouth of Salmon river thence direct across a high range of mountains some eighty miles, to the level lands along the Kootenai river It is claimed that the route by this trail is about 150 miles nearer than the one around by the lakes which from a slight knowledge of the country to be traveled over, we are inclined to believe.—W W Statesman

Some six years since a man named John Scouge, stole a span of horses from a person in the town of Vernon, Shiawassee county After bringing them to this city and selling them, he escaped to California A short time he returned from there, was recognized arrested, tried for the offense, convicted, and is now suffering the penalty of his crime in the State Prison —Jackson Patriot, April 13

The East Tennessee people dislike the wholesale system of pardons and amnesties which the government has arranged for the benefit of those rebels who for two years persecuted them They are bringing the machinery of the State courts to bear on their cruel enemies, and a Judge in Davidson county has lately charged that the President's pardon extends to all so far as the United States extends but not to any as regards treason against the State of Tennessee"

HAIL TO THE CHIEF.—A man was seen running "wild with excitement" towards Pioneer wharf, yesterday afternoon and his actions created a suspicion in the mind of Locaklitems that "something was up," so we followed him, expecting a "big thing" It so turned out that it was a contractor, who had realized no profits on a flat boat load of wood and was running to hail the steamer Loyal Ellsworth, then passing and engage Captain Kern to tow his barge to a landing in the city The deed was done

FROM HONOLULU.—The bark Cambridge, from the Sandwich Islands, is in the Columbia river, headed this way. The steamer John H. Couch passed her yesterday, near the mouth of the Cowlitz, and in case of fair winds she may be expected up to-day. When she does arrive look out the curious portion of her cargo. The few arrivals at this port from the Hawaiian Islands, makes one a great attraction, for the time being, to our people. Capt. Brooks has forwarded us the following extract of the manifest of her cargo, and a file of the Hawaiian papers;

MANIFEST.—500 5-gall. kegs syrup, 500 8-gall. kegs do., 480 kegs sugar, 24 bales pulu, 2 cases curios, 1 case tapioca, consigned to Allen & Lewis; 440 kegs sugar, consigned to Richards & McCraken; 200 tons coarse salt, 1200 kegs brown sugar, a lot of white and red coral, limes, tamrinds, bananas, and a quantity of gold fish, N. C. Brooks.

The Cambridge sailed from Honolulu on the 21st of May, and has experienced fine weather the entire passage. The bark Smyniacot sailed two days previous for San Francisco. Left in port the barks Comet and A. A. Eldridge, to sail June 1st for the same destination. Considerable excitement prevailed in Honolulu in consequence of an effort being made by the King and Noble to abrogate the constitution and construct an absolute monarchy. Numerous indignation meetings had been held by the natives, and it was thought the movement would not succeed without a rebellion. The famous Missionary brig Morning Star, which was built by contributions from the Sunday School scholars of the United States, has been placed under the Hawaiian flag, and is now engaged in the coasting trade under command of an English master. It is a notorious fact, that this public vessel, built in that manner, has been under charter to a trading company for several years, for no compensation, and is now nearly used up, the speculators having made a competency out of her. It is to be hoped that the juvenile stock holders will build another to replace her soon, and be more successful. The clipper Miss Anna arrived on the 14th of May in a leaky condition, having been ashore at Houlads Island, while loading with guano. Sugar plantations on the islands are rapidly increasing, and it is supposed this years crop will exceed that of the last year, one-third.

LOSS OF AN OLD SHADE.—One of the fine old cottonwood trees, on the river bank at the foot of Ash street in this city, has finally yielded to the work of time, and the surging waters, and fallen into the stream, with a portion of the caving bank. For a generation past the group of which this composed one, have given shelter, alike to savages and civilized man, from the beating rays of a summer's sun. In the early settlement of Portland is is recollected that but few trees existed in the immediate vicinity of these, and until a very late day it has been a famous place for camping, even now it is the accepted resort of the few remaining Indians among us, and only last week one evening we observed a tribe spreading their blankets to wait for another sun. Two of the old timbers "still live," but their days are numbered, as they stand in the way of man's progression, and another season will see them removed, for the erection over their site of a mammoth commercial wharf.

THE CONCERT THIS EVENING.—Our citizens have a right to expect, at the Willamette this evening, the richest entertainment ever given in Portland. The inimitable drolleries of Dodge and the melody of Hayward are celebrated wide as the continent. Those who most admire low buffoonry and ribald jests must not expect to be gratified, for Dodge and Hayward are not in their line; but all those who appreciate chaste, intellectual, and side-splitting fun—who want to laugh till the tears flow—can have their fill. The more refined and intelligent the audience, the greater degree of pleasure they will experience. We received a letter last evening from a prominent citizen of Oregon City, warmly praising the concert given in that place night before last, but which we omit for want of space.

A SUICIDE CASE.—Mr. Ivo Voet, living in Brooklyn, and doing business there, shot himself through the head in his own store, night before last. He had been suffering from ill health for a year past and has been subject to fits of mental aberration during that time, in which he has frequently alluded to his final termination. When in health, and a clear state of mind, he has been known as a man of more than ordinary standing. We understand he leaves no relatives in this country. The coroner held an inquest over the body, yesterday afternoon, and returned a verdict that his death was occasioned by a gun shot wound as above stated.

NEW VEGETABLES.—One of the most successful farmers of Multnomah county, appeared in the streets of our city yesterday with his huckster-wagon, and as usual was besieged by a host of dealers, all anxious to buy. In answer to the inquiry, "what have you got?" he roared out: "Vegetables! lettuce and butter-milk." Implying in the sentence that the last named commodity was a growth of the soil. The "hit" was a good one, and caused considerable merriment, but some could not see the point wherein the converted bovine was made vegetable. No do we.

HAIL TO THE CHIEF.—A man was seen running "wild with excitement" towards Pioneer wharf, yesterday afternoon, and his actions raised a suspicion in the mind of Loakilitems that "something was up," so we followed him, expecting a "big thing." It so turned out that it was a contractor, who had realized the profits on a flat boat load of wood and was running to hail the steamer Loyal Ellsworth, then passing, and engage Captain Kern to tow his barge to a landing in the city. The deed was done.

PROPERTY SALE.—The three lots to be sold at auction to-day by Mr. Richardson, are among the best in the city for residences, and will no doubt call out many bidders. There is no prospect of any one, ever losing money by investing it in property at the present time in Portland, from the fact that our future, as a city, never before looked so hopeful. We trust the terms will not prevent persons from bidding to-day.

EXAMINATION EXERCISES.—The examination exercises at the Portland Academy and Female Seminary will commence this morning, and continue for three days. They will consist mainly in the reading of original essays, recitations, declamations, etc., under the direction of Prof. Frambes and wife.

THE WEATHER.—Although the weather is pretty cold, farmers tell us it is fine for the coming crops.

The steamer Pacific went to sea yesterday morning at 5 o'clock.

STEAM SAW MILL.—Messrs. Harbaugh & Stitzel are now receiving a large supply of logs, at the North Portland steam saw mill, and are about to commence operations on an extended scale. The capacity of their establishment has received comment in our columns heretofore, and is set forth in their advertisement to-day. An office, more convenient to the business part of the city, has been opened in the building corner of Oak, No. 51 Front street, up stairs.

GET VACCINATED.—We understand that the small pox has made its appearance in Vancouver. The least our citizens can do to prevent its spreading into our midst, is to get the proper vaccination, which should be done without delay, by all who are subject to the disease.

STEAMING UP.—The steamer Pioneer, which has laid up for a long time, was again in working order last evening. Her machinery has been all overhauled, and very much improved.

NO RESERVED SEATS!—We hear no seats will be reserved at Dodge's concert this evening, but owing to the immense demand for tickets, the price, by request of the citizens, will be one dollar to all parts of the house. The upholstered seats in the parquet however, will only be occupied by ladies and their companions. The Theatre has thoroughly cleaned and renovated for the occasion, and a dress party may be looked for of no ordinary brilliancy. Doors and box office will be open at seven o'clock precisely.

☞ The Annual Exhibition of Portland Academy and Female Seminary will be given at the M. E. Church on Friday evening, June 17th, for the benefit of the Ladies' Sanitary Aid Society.

Tickets may be obtained at Smith & Davis, Harker Bros, and at Randall's Music Store.

☞ In every age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system, is acknowledged by all.

☞ Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue, and take no other. Sold everywhere.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere. ap7d&w

Loss of Appetite.—In persons of sedentary and literary pursuits, if the brain is over-worked and the muscles under-worked, the appetite is very apt to fail from a general atony of the system. The PERUVIAN SYRUP restores the tone of the digestive system, and consequently the appetite, by supplying a pure blood to organs too weak to make it without assistance.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valleys and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

KERDSVILLE, WIS., Sept. 16, 1864.
* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton Ill. they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me.
C. A. FLAUTR."

SOUTH WARSAW, O., July 28, 1863.
* * * One young man, who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters.
EDWARD WOUNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY SEVENTH STREET,
NEW YORK, August 2, 1863.

"DR DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness, and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well * * Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE."

* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.
REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y."

* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefitted by their use.
Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.
REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.
SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.
G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business. H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O."

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.
etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c. all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

Human Angels

Hand in hand with angels
Through the world we go,
Brighter eyes are on us
Than we blind ones know;
Tenderer voices cheer us
Than we deaf will own—
Never walking heavenward,
Can we walk alone.

Hand in hand with angels,
In the busy street,
By the winter hearth fires,
Everywhere, we meet—
Though unfledged and songless—
Birds of Paradise;
Heaven looks at us daily,
Out of human eyes.

Hand in hand with angels,
Walking every day,
How the chain may lengthen,
None of us may say;
Yet we know it reaches
From earth's lowliest ones
To the lofty seraphim
Standing in the sun.

Hand in hand with angels—
Blessed so to be!
Helped are all the helpers—
Giving light they see,
He who aids another
Blesses more than one—
Linking earth he clambers
To the Great White Throne.

Conquering a Sea-Dog.

Some years ago, when the old ship "Light Heart" was new and staunch, and when I had command of her, there happened on board an incident, over which I have laughed many a time, when memory has brought it back to me. I loaded at Mobile with cotton and ran to Liverpool. Among my crew was a man named Rannot—Sam, we always called him. He was one of the largest formed men I ever saw, and came from somewhere in New England. He stood six feet and five inches in his bare feet, and was as stout and bulky in proportion. He had one fault, and that was an inordinate pride of strength. He was not quarrelsome, nor had he a revengeful point in his character, and yet he was continually pestering and annoying the crew. Hardly a day passed that he did not give one or more of them bodily pain by his freaks. He would catch a poor fellow by the legs, and swing him over his head, at the imminent risk of smashing his brains out against the mast or bulwarks, and then he would laugh hugely at the poor man's fright. Sometimes he would seize a man by the arms and lay him upon the deck, and in no very easy manner, either. It was no use for a man to remonstrate, for he would be sure to punish them in some way.

Of course I forbade Sam from doing such things; but he could not remember my orders longer than over one night. The love of "fun," as he called it, was fixed too strongly upon him, and it could not be taken out of him. He did not realize how unpleasant his pranks were, nor did he know that the rest of the crew had grown to dislike him. They had adopted many expedients to cure him, but they all failed, and though he had often been made the butt of practical jokes such as sudden drenching in cold sea water while he slept, and other things equally unpleasant—yet he always paid his tormentors off with interest. He was, in fact, the worst practical joker I ever saw, and not a whit did he care, so long as he exhibited his herculean strength, and broke no bones.

When my ship arrived at Mobile, on the return voyage, another cargo of cotton was ready for me, and I was ordered to load and be off as quick as possible. But no sooner was the ship cleared than my men—all but Sam Rannot—came and informed me that they could not go with me again unless Sam was discharged. I was not prepared for this. In heavy work Sam was worth any other three men on board, and always willing and ready. Yet I knew how the crew suffered from his thoughtless pranks, and I could not blame them. I told the men to come to me on the following day, and I would give them an audience.

At first I thought of promising them that I would see that the old sea dog did not annoy them any more, but I soon convinced myself that that would be of no use. Sam would cut up his capers when I would not see him, and the men would not report him every time he hurt them. But soon a new idea entered my head. I had a brother, who owned a large cotton plantation on the Chickasaw. His place was not over fifteen miles from Mobile, and he had just the man I wanted. His big arms were like iron, and his breast and shoulders like a large bundle of wire done up in raw ox hide.

I bantered my brother to let me have Cato for one or two voyages.

"Take him and welcome," said he. "He's getting too important here."

"What—is he ugly?"

"Oh, no, just the other way. He's too good-natured altogether. He sets the very sancho into the other boys. I've made too much of him.

"But will he work."

"Yes."

So I got Cato for twelve dollars a month as long as I wanted him, with the privilege of having him one cruise for nothing. But I took him "for better or for worse," and agreed to pay for his services.

On the next day I went on board the ship, and when the men came to me for my answer I asked them if they would sail with Sam if I would produce a quiet, inoffensive man who could handle him, and take said man to sea with me. They said they would—they would have gone with me for nothing, for the sake of seeing Sam conquered. I told them he should be, and enjoined them to secrecy, which they promised.

When Cato learned that he was going to sea with me, he was beside himself with joy; and when I came to tell him what I wanted of him, he laughed till the tears rolled down his great black cheeks.

On the day of sailing I brought Cato on board. At first the men exhibited some signs of dislike, but when they found what a jolly, good hearted old fellow he was, they gave him their hands. Sam Rannot winked prodigiously when he saw the new man, and more than once he whispered to those near him:

"There'll be fun before long."

On the third day out we got everything snug and trim, save clearing and covering the long boat; and now the crew could find time to snooze by daylight. It was in the afternoon, the wind was from the southward and westward, and we had it upon the starboard beam, the ship bowling along at the rate of about six knots. Cato sat upon the combings of the main hatch, and Sam was slowly approaching him, not very unlike as a dog sometimes approaches a smaller animal which it never before saw.

"Say, blackey, get up," ordered Sam, with a grin, at the same time looking around to see if the rest of the crew were ready to enjoy the sport.

"A yah—yah—wouldn't make a poor feller h'ist now, eh?"

"Yes, git up."

"Don't."

"I say—git up."

"Wha' for?"

"Fun."

"Now you jes' look heah, Sam, you s'pose you fool wid dis chile, eh? If you do, it's all right. But I specs you'll git hurt, and den you'll git mad, eh?"

This was spoken with the most imperturbable gravity, and the negro slowly rose while he spoke, looking demure as a child.

"Who'll get hurt?" asked Sam, with a flourish.

"I s'pecs you."

"How?"

"Foolin' wid me."

"Now you jest set right down on them combin's agin," uttered Sam, at the same time laying both his hands on Cato's shoulders.

The negro's brown eyes sparkled, and a broad grin broke over his face as he felt Sam's hands upon him, but without speaking he placed one of his huge black paws upon the joker's jacket collar, and with the other he seized him by the seat of his trowsers. One deep breath came up from Cato's throat like the puff of a locomotive—then the great cords of his neck and arms started out like hawsers, and when he lifted himself up, the giant form of Sam Rannot was swayed aloft above his woolly head. A moment he looked about him, and he saw the long boat behind him, nearly half full of rainwater.

"A yah—yah, massa Sam. Cool 'um off!"

And as he spoke, he dumped the astonished giant over into the long boat, and as he let go his hold, the massive body splashed in the deep, dirty water.

All the night before it had rained hard, and as the large boat had not been covered, and the plug being in, she was of course well filled. At any rate, there was enough water to completely submerge the victim. In an instant all hands gathered about the boat, myself among the rest. First we heard a terrible sputtering, and puffing and blowing, like a hippopotamus just come to land, and in a moment more Sam's sandy head, all dripping and soaked, appeared above the rail. He saw us all standing there with convulsions of restrained mirth upon our faces, and for some seconds he moved not a hair. Never before did I see such utter misery—such unmitigated woe as dwelt upon that face. Edwin Forrest's is nothing to it. Most truly had Sam lost all his "pride, pomp and circumstance."

"Farewell! Othello's occupation's gone!"

"Spect's I didn't hurt you much, eh?" uttered Cato, with becoming gravity.

But it was too much for us. Poor Sam's look at the black conqueror upset the cup, and we burst. With a deep groan the vanquished man crawled over on the other side of the boat and got out, and then made his way below. Half an hour afterwards he came on deck with dry clothes on, and having hung his wet ones in the rigging to dry, he turned to where Cato stood. He surveyed the negro from head to foot several times, and finally he placed his hand upon the arms that had lifted him so easily. He felt of their cable like surface a moment, and then he said, in a sad tone, while he shook his head dubiously.

"It's no use! You're a great nigger."

And that was the last of Sam Rannot's mischief. His pride of physical strength was broken, for he had found his superior, and he settled down into a quiet, orderly seaman. I feared at first that he might seek some revenge upon Cato, but he was too noble for that. He knew that he had invited the attack, and as soon as the first smart of pain was gone, he and his conqueror were fast and firm friends.

MARRIAGE A HUNDRED YEARS AGO.—The following extract from the Gentleman's Magazine for 1750 may not be uninteresting to our readers: "Married in June 1750, Mr. WM DONKIN, a considerable farmer of Great Tosson (near Rothbury) in the county of Northumberland, to Miss ELEANOR SHOTON, an agreeable young gentlewoman, of the same place. The entertainment on the occasion was very grand, there being provided no less than 12 quarters of lamb, 44 quarters of veal, 20 quarters of mutton a great quantity of beef, 12 hams, with suitable number of chickens &c., which was concluded with 8 half-ankers of brandy, made into punch, 12 dozen of cider, a great many gallons of wine, and 90 bushels of malt made into beer. The company consisted of 550 ladies and gentlemen, who concluded with the music of 25 fiddlers and pipers and the whole was conducted with the utmost order and unanimity."

GENERAL BANKS.—Says the N. Y. News' Washington correspondent:

"General Banks' opponents will not, perhaps, talk so much against that officer in the recent campaign in Louisiana, when they learn the well authenticated fact that the plan of the whole movement was concocted by Secretary Stanton and General Halleck, who sent forward their orders in imperative terms to move forward at a certain time to a certain point. No margin was left to Gen. Banks to use his own discretion on certain contingencies, but his orders were to move forward."

In the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon

The Monticello and Cowlitz Landing Steamboat Company, libellant, vs the Steamboat Senator

WHEREAS, a libel has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon on the first day of June, A D 1864 by the Monticello and Cowlitz Landing Steamboat Company against the steamboat Senator, her tackle apparel and furniture, alleging in substance that said libellants have a claim for damages against said steamboat Senator in a cause of collision civil and maritime. That on Saturday the 20th day of May, A D 1864 on the Willamette river in the State of Oregon while the steamboat Rescue, belonging to said libellants was proceeding on a voyage from the port of Portland to the port of Oregon City on said Willamette river she was with great force and violence run into and upon by the said steamboat Senator, thereby causing great injury and damage to the wheel shaft and machinery of the said steamer Rescue. That said collision was caused by the unskilful and improper management and the carelessness and negligence of the persons navigating the said steamboat Senator. And that in consequence of said collision and injuries to said steamboat Rescue the libellants have sustained damages in the sum of two thousand dollars, and praying that the said steamboat Senator may be condemned and sold to pay the said sum of two thousand dollars damages. Now therefore in pursuance of the monition under the seal of the said Court to me directed and delivered I do hereby give notice to all persons claiming the said steamboat Senator her tackle &c or in any manner interested therein that they be and appear before the said District Court to be held at the city of Portland in and for the District of Oregon on the first Monday of July next A D 1864 at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day (provided the same shall be a day of jurisdiction thereafter) then and there to interpose their claims and make their allegations in that behalf.

Dated this 9th day of June, A D 1864

PERUVIAN SYRUP,
OR PROTECTED
Solution of Protoxide of Iron,
Has been used with Great Success in Curing
DYSPEPSIA,
Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Scurvy, the prostrating effects of Lead or Mercury, GENERAL DEBILITY,
and all Diseases which require a
Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY are so numerous so well authenticated, and of such peculiar character that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN, and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A A HAYES, M D, IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to ever estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM, and to have great control over
SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation it remained almost useless until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

without a solvent. This considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr J R Chilton of this city, and Prof Booth U S Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1863, page 75.)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutricious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured, strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental they are a positive specific.

A word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters,

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females.

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.
